TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it has no equal, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BINKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it." Dr. W. N. WATERS, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion." Genuine has been Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

IN THE WORLD OF LABOR.

OFFICERS GUARD THE BURLINGTON'S PROPERTY IN CHICAGO.

Chief of Police Hubbard Anticipates No Serious Riot—A New Brakeman Seriously Injured—Several Rows at Galesburg—The Cincinnati Shoemakers.

CHICAGO, March 28.—During the early morning a large number of people assembled in the vicinity of Sixteenth street. Among them were strikers, idlers and curiosity-seekers. Upon the arrival of the police the crowds separated and dispersed. There were also good sized crowds at Twelfth and Western avenue. Capt. O'Donnell's detail was spread out from Western avenue to Canal street, and the police were kept moving up and down the tracks all the morning. The instructions sent out by the chief were to the West Twelfth and Canal Port stations, ordering them to take such action as the circumstances would warrant. While the police say they do not fear trouble, yet they have made arrangements to meet it.

At Western avenue nine conductors and a few new men were doing the switching. No strikers were about, but twenty special and regular officers were on duty. Between Halsted street and Western avenue sixty officers were counted along the tracks of the Burlington. They patrolled the yards for the purpose of preventing the strikers from gathering at any point.

"I anticipate no serious trouble from the strikers," said Chief Hubbard to a United Press reporter this morning. "There may be individual sluggings, but there is no likelihood of a riot."

One train load of stock came into the stock yards this morning over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy division under guard of twelve Pinkerton men.

It is generally believed that if any serious trouble occurs it will take place at the stock yards, outside the jurisdiction of the police. There is considerable switching done for the Burlington in that vicinity, and the strikers, if they are inclined to be ugly, at all, will probably commence operations there.

The entrance to the general offices of the Burlington road was fairly swarmed with Pinkerton reserves this morning, and Superintendent Robertson, of the Pinkerton force, was in consultation with General Manager Stone. It is understood these men will be used to guard the company's property.

Chief Arthur, who was seen at the Grand Pacific this morning, said there was no change as far as the engineers were concerned, and they were waiting, as they had been a long time, for the company to "come to terms."

Fred. Baum, one of the new switchmen employed yesterday was seriously injured this morning at Halsted street. He was standing on top of a freight car and when it passed under the viaduct he neglected to duck his head and was knocked off the car. It is thought his skull was fractured.

Queen City Shoemakers.

CINCINNATI, March 28.—All is apparently quiet in the shoemakers' circles. The manufacturers all report full forces or forces increased over the average. It seems that the number of shoemakers who have lost positions because of the lockout difficulties has been generally exaggerated. Those in the position to know say there are not to exceed 400 of such. Those who have taken the places of the striking shoemakers are not all green hands, either.

At the commencement of this trouble there were at least two hundred girls of Hannah Powderly assembly who were out of work and had been for months. These long idle members lost little time in going to work when opportunity offered through the strike. It is thought that if the Knights of Labor shoemakers who have lost their jobs will not persist in holding incendiary "mass meetings" and adopting hot-headed resolutions, the bosses will gradually let go their inexperienced, inexperienced hands to make room for all the old employees.

Within the next ten days it is understood that there will be eight or ten expulsions from the Knights of Labor order of the opposition leaders and of officers of the suspended assemblies who have refused to turn over the charters and other property of those assemblies as ordered.

Several Rows at Galesburg.

GALESBURG, Ill., March 28.—The strike question is beginning to assume a lively shape. The switchmen went to the office of Superintendent Rice, yesterday afternoon, and called for their pay checks, and since that time several rows have occurred.

George Lane, one of the present fireman, was set upon by one of the strikers and badly pounded. Three engineers, who were going to the depot, were attacked by some of the strikers and quite badly injured. Walking behind the engineers was a man from Franklin, Ind., who was waiting for a train. The strikers, taking him for a "scab" turned upon him, one of them striking him in the face with a brick, cutting a deep gash under the left eye.

Union Printers Strike.

ERIE, Pa., March 28.—The union compositors in the Erie Morning Dispatch and Erie Herald offices have struck against the use of stereotype plates of certain annual official statements published in several papers where the type is set in one office and stereotypes of the matter are sold to other offices. The places of the strikers are being filled with non-union men and the papers will be published as usual.

All Switchmen Discharged.

CHICAGO, March 28.—The striking Burlington switchmen were all discharged Monday afternoon, as they failed to return to work at the time ordered by the officials. A few new men were at once hired, but the Burlington cannot begin to handle its freight traffic.

SILVER MINE IN KENTUCKY.

An Assay Results in a Good Showing.

Work Being Rushed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 28.—A party of Louisville gentlemen have for some time been working to develop lead mines in Scott county, about Georgetown. At the same time silver prospecting was indulged in, and after six months of patient work silver has been struck on the Brown farm, about ten miles from Georgetown. Mr. James Lewis, of this city, an expert in mining matters, while working at the lead veins, six months ago, struck a light deposit of silver ore which he has been closely following up.

Five weeks ago the company brought from Australia A. H. Sherman, of London, England, an expert of recognized standing of seven years in the Australian gold mines, and he at once went to work with Mr. Lewis. After the quartz formation had been followed from Payne's deposit a distance of ten miles, a rich silver vein was struck last Thursday. An assay made by Mr. Sherman showed, so he says, the silver deposit to be over 90 per cent. of the ore.

Work is being rapidly pushed, and a shaft on the newly discovered mine is being sunk. The company has already leased the land, and has five lead mines in active operation. About one hundred and fifty pounds of the silver ore have been brought to this city for exhibition by Mr. Sherman. The company intends shortly beginning extensive operations in their newly discovered mines.

THEY ARE GENUINE.

A Secret Service Agent Causes a Counterfeit Scare.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 28.—Secret Service Agent McSweeney came here last Saturday from Ritchie county with a large bundle of $5 silver certificates, which he alleged were counterfeit.

He went to all of the banks in this city yesterday and found a great amount of the issue in all of them. One bank is reported as having $20,000 worth. These notes were thrown out by McSweeney as counterfeit.

The banks were badly rattled, as also were all the merchants and business men of the city, not one of them escaping. The consternation became general and a small panic ensued. Meanwhile McSweeney had sent one note to the authorities at Washington, believing they would endorse this action.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, he received a telegram from the department stating that the notes were all good. McSweeney says the authorities accounted for the discrepancy on the ground that the latter issues had been printed by machinery instead of by hand as were the first issues.

The banks and people are too overjoyed over saving their money to be hypercritical. The alleged counterfeiters are more than one-sixteenth of an inch short.

Ohio Legislature.

COLUMBUS, March 28.—The house refused to pass Outcault's bill authorizing the formation of corporations to improve real estate.

Outcault's bill to allow the directors of the Cincinnati infirmary the full amount of $150,000, due them under the Dow law, was passed.

The senate nearly adopted a resolution to adjourn April 9, but one vote was needed for its adoption. The house is ready, and an early adjournment can and ought to be had.

The senate investigating committee was empowered to employ a stenographer. Senator Rannels introduced a bill prohibiting the sale of liquors within two miles of a soldiers' and sailors' home.

A Mexican Stage Robbery.

NOGALES, Ariz., March 28.—The prefect of Magdalena district, Sonora, Mex., has notified Governor Corral that the Altar & Santa Ana stage was taken in a few nights ago by two masked men near the town of Ocuca. The robbers carried off a number of sacks of coin and what other valuables they could get, but did not attempt to shoot any one, although they made threats in case there should be any resistance. Next day Diego Marino and a posse pursued the highwaymen as far as Tubiana, where the trail was lost. It is thought the robbers are attempting to get across the line into the United States.

Senator Jones All Right.

DETROIT, March 28.—Ex-Senator Jones, of Florida, attended the bar meeting yesterday, which adopted resolutions on the death of Chief Justice Waite, and at which special addresses were made by a number of leading lawyers. After several had spoken Mr. Jones arose and spoke at some little length, paying a sincere tribute to the late chief justice, and astonishing the gathering with the eloquence of his manner as much as his words. His address is voted as one of the best made at the meeting.

Nancy Swope Acquired.

ANDERSON, Ind., March 28.—The jury in the case of Nancy Swope, a white woman, who stabbed and killed Sarah Dawson, a colored woman, with a carving knife at the Cartwright house last July, Monday afternoon returned a verdict of not guilty. It was received with applause by the large crowd in the court room. The jury had been out since Wednesday noon. The case was tried last October, when the jury disagreed. Self defense is given as the cause of acquittal.

Bloody Fight.

TIPTON, Ind., March 28.—On Saturday night Doxey Craig and Sam Sanders got into a bloody fight at Windfall; in this county. Craig got the better of the fight. He knocked Sanders' eyes out, fractured his skull, stove in his breast bone and did Sanders up generally, until it is believed he can not recover. Craig is in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury.

Opposition Withdrawn.

TORONTO, Ont., March 28.—The customs department has withdrawn the opposition to the shipment of grain from Manitoba for Ontario points by the way of the Northern Pacific railway and Grand Trunk. The authorities have been notified to that effect.

Not Tascott's Body.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 28.—The body of the dead man found at Inner Grove Saturday, which was thought to be Tascott's, has been identified as that of James C. McFeely, formerly a clerk with Taylor, Craig & Company, of this city.

Rebellious Salvationists.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., March 28.—Gen. Moore, commander of the Salvation Army in America, has arrived here to superintend the formation of the new corps of Salvationists here who rebelled and set up an independent body.

Deemed His Life Hopeless.

SALT LAKE, Utah, March 28.—E. L. Willman, a commercial traveler for Pratt & Simmons, of St. Louis, committed suicide last night by hypodermic injection of morphine. He left a letter saying his life was hopeless.

SNOW, WIND AND WATER.

ICE GORGES ON THE MISSOURI GROW STRONGER DAILY.

People Seeking Safety on the Hills—Railroads Blocked by Snow in Northern Wisconsin and Minnesota—Two Feet of Snow on a Level in Dakota—Notes.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, March 28.—The people of Jackson, Neb., are leaving their farms on low lands and seeking shelter on the hills, fearing that when the great gorge at Cottonwood hill breaks, everything will be swept away. The lower sections, opposite the mouth of the Big Sioux, are now overflowed and some stock has been lost.

Anxiety is growing greater every day, as the gorges are becoming stronger, and, together with the cold weather, when the break comes, nothing can stand the rush of water. The water at Sioux City continues to fall slowly, while at Yankton the banks are full, showing that the several gorges between the two cities are yet firm.

Plenty of Snow and Badly Drifted.

DULUTH, Minn., March 28.—Northern Wisconsin and Minnesota are experiencing another severe storm. Over a foot and a half of snow has fallen and is drifting badly. The St. Paul & Duluth is the only road that has managed to get through on time, all the others being from five to thirty hours late. Sunday's western express on the Northern Pacific left here last night thirty-one hours behind time. The storm commenced at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon and has been raging ever since. Street cars ran with difficulty and outside work was generally suspended.

Blocked in Without Fuel.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 28.—The little town of Revillo, in Grant county, Dakota, is completely blocked in. Word has been received from there that the town was absolutely without fuel, and that people were compelled to break up dry goods and other boxes, and in some cases their furniture, to burn in their stoves.

Fears for Crops.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, March 28.—It is feared that the severe sleet storm of Saturday night, Sunday's heavy rain. The hail of last night, and the freezing weather which followed, will seriously damage the winter grains.

Railway Travel Suspended.

ABERDEEN, Dak., March 28.—It has been snowing here incessantly for the last thirty-six hours. There are two feet of snow on the level. All railway travel is suspended. The storm is general in central Dakota.

Breaks in the Miami & Erie Canal.

PIQUA, O., March 28.—Two breaks occurred in the Miami & Erie canal Monday, one above town and one below. The heavy snow went off with the rain Sunday night and Monday, and filled all the streams bank full. The Miami is at flood height.

HUNGARIAN RIOTERS.

They Capture a Village and Threaten to Burn It—Ringleaders Arrested.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., March 28.—For some time there has been trouble at the Maynard coal mines, this county, between the Americans and the Hungarians, and last Saturday night the trouble broke out afresh, and a young riot was indulged in, several being hurt on both sides. Monday afternoon the Hungarians again put on their war paint and threatened to burn the town and kill all the Americans. A telegram for assistance reached this place at 3 o'clock, and Marshal G. W. Doyle, with a posse, left for the seat of war, and on arriving there found the town in a fever of excitement, the Hungarians having taken possession. Seven of the ringleaders were placed under arrest and brought to the county jail at this place, where they will have to answer to the charge of rioting. The trouble is likely to break out again at a moment's notice, but the Americans have armed themselves, and are determined to protect their lives and property.

It Happened in Texas.

EAGLE POINT, Tex., March 28.—Last night a difficulty occurred in the bottoms between Andy Mason and Davis Green, both colored. The latter attempted to shoot Mason. Arthur McDow, a prominent white man, interfered and attempted to disarm them, when Mason shot twice, the second shot taking effect in McDow's thigh, breaking the bone and causing a painful wound. After McDow was shot other parties drew guns and riddled Green with bullets, killing him instantly. During the fusillade, Dennis Winslow, a respectable colored man, was accidentally shot and killed.

A $30,000 Fire.

BUFFALO, March 28.—A despatch from Union City, Pa., twenty-six miles south of Erie, Pa., says that a conflagration raged there this morning. The buildings containing McLean's drug store, Woods Brothers' grocery, and Waters' boot and shoe store were burned. A tank of benzine exploded in McLean's drug store blowing four men out of the building. W. O. Black, H. White, and N. Waters were badly burned, and Dr. Bliss so seriously injured that he may die. Loss about $30,000; insurance one-half.

With a Bullet Near His Heart.

PITTSBURG, March 28.—Bert Edmunds was found late yesterday afternoon dead in his room at Phillipsburg, Beaver county, with a bullet wound just under his heart and a revolver by his side. Letters addressed to his sweetheart, to his mother and to his sister were found on a table near a lighted lamp, that had evidently been burning all night. Another letter was addressed to the world. They have not yet been opened.

White Justified in Shooting Knoder.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 28.—John Knoder, who was shot by W. R. White, was still alive to-day. The evidence so far collected among the witnesses of the shooting at car works would tend to show that White was justified. Knoder has been a troublesome character.

Passed the Century Mark.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Mrs. Agnes Allen Kissam, of Sixth avenue and First street, died at 4 o'clock this morning at the age of one hundred years and twenty-one days.

WILLIAM DORSHEIMER DEAD.

New York's Ex-Governor Dies Suddenly in Savannah, Georgia.

NEW YORK, March 28.—A dispatch from Georgia states that ex-Governor William Dorsheimer died at the Pulaski hotel in that city at 9:22 last night from pneumonia.

On March 15 Mr. and Mrs. Dorsheimer left New York for Florida, stopping for a few days at Washington. Dr. Dorsheimer was then in perfect health. On the way south he took cold and was obliged to stop at Savannah. His sickness proved unexpectedly fatal in four days' time.

William Dorsheimer was a noted journalist and ally of ex-Governor Tilden. He was admitted to the New York bar in 1854.

In politics he began as a Democrat, joined the Republicans in 1856 and in 1860 again supported the Republican ticket. At the beginning of the civil war he was appointed major on Gen. Fremont's staff, and the close of the Missouri hundred-days' campaign he returned to civil life and published descriptive war articles in the Atlantic Monthly.

In 1867 he was appointed by President Johnson United States district attorney of the Northern district of New York. In 1874 the Democrats of New York nominated him for lieutenant governor with Samuel J. Tilden for governor, and both were elected. Dorsheimer was re-elected in 1875, and in 1883 was sent to congress from the Seventh district of New York. He was a member of the Liberal Republican National convention in Cincinnati in 1872 and of the St. Louis Democratic convention in 1876. In 1884 he published a biography of Grover Cleveland, and 1885 was made district attorney for the Southern district of New York. He resigned in March, 1886. In 1885 he purchased the New York Star and has published it ever since. He was a brilliant and versatile writer and a firm supporter of the National administration.

A PITIABLE CASE.

A Well Educated Stranger Insane at Findlay, Ohio.

FINDLAY, O., March 28.—A man got off an early train Monday morning who acted so queerly that the police took him into custody. He said that his name was Rex, and that he was the son of God and king of heaven, and that he had just escaped from a confinement of fifty years in a Michigan insane asylum. He claims to be a graduate of Oberlin college, and states that he was formerly employed as a reporter on the Dayton O. Journal. From his ready command of language it is easy to see that he has a fine education, as he makes long quotations from Shakespeare, Byron and other standard authors. When any number is mentioned in his conversation it is invariably fifty millions. He is a man of medium size, has dark hair and beard, is well dressed, and apparently about fifty years of age.

In his valise were found several changes of good clothing, a Bible and a number of half finished essays on various subjects, evincing the application of a trained and talented mind. Among his papers the name of William Henderson frequently appears, and it is supposed that this is either his own name or the name of an intimate friend. There is nothing to indicate where he came from. His condition is such as to excite pity, and he will be held here a few days, that his friends may have an opportunity of placing him in an institution for diseased minds. If nothing is heard from any quarter concerning him within a reasonable time he will be sent to the asylum at Toledo.

TWO MEN BLOWN TO ATOMS

By an Explosion in a Dynamite Factory.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 28.—Williams & Landers' dynamite factory, two miles west of Hartsdale, was completely demolished by an explosion which occurred shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. The force of the explosion was terrific and destroyed Mr. Landers' and other buildings one-fourth of a mile away. Only two persons lost their lives—George Haucher and Michael Conerty. Particles of flesh and bone were found among the debris, together with coats, dinner pails, etc. Windows in a number of dwellings in surrounding villages were shattered and chimneys thrown down, causing great excitement.

River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The river and harbor committee of congress will report a bill to expend $19,432,783.17, the Ohio river to get $350,000, of which $25,000 is to be expended on the Licking river opposite Cincinnati; $75,000 for an ice harbor at Portsmouth and $25,000 for improvements at the mouth of the Big Hocking. The Muskingum gets $102,000.

The committee provide for an expenditure of $150,000 on improvements at the falls of the Ohio at Louisville, and $15,000 at Indiana chute.

The Great Kanawha is to get $300,000, the Big Sandy $31,500, the Elk river $1,500, the Buckhannon $1,500, the Guvandotte $1,000, and the Little Miami $25,000.

Miss Cora Fellows Will Not Wed the Sioux Brave, as Reported.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Mr. Homer Fellows, the father of Miss Fellows, who is reported in the dispatches from Dakota to have married Chaska, a Sioux Indian, says that he has received a letter from his daughter dated March 11, announcing that she was to be married to Mr. Samuel Campbell, nephew of the Rev. Dr. Hanford, of the Episcopal church. Mr. Campbell is employed by the bureau of Indian affairs, and is stationed at Fort Bennett. In a letter of the same date received from Mr. Campbell, that gentleman says that he has a trace of Indian blood in his veins, and Mr. Fellows asserts that from this trail foundation has sprung the sensational reports that have been published.

Our Belgian Minister.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Friends of Judge Lambert Tree, United States minister to Belgium, says he is coming home with the intention of resigning from the diplomatic service. It is incidentally suggested that Mr. Tree has become tired of paying money out of his own pocket to keep up the dignity of the United States in Belgium, his salary being barely sufficient to cover house rent.

"Free Wool."

One of the principal clauses in the Mills Tariff bill is that which proposes removing the tax on wool, and making this article free. No other clause in the bill will provoke a bitterer fight.

The Republicans claim that free wool will ruin the sheep industry and destroy the woolen manufactures of our country. That party prefers to give the people cheap whisky and cheap tobacco in preference to cheap food and clothing. However, there are always two sides to every question, and the Democrats have undoubtedly got the right side of this "free wool" business.

In discussing this much vexed subject, Congressman Breckinridge says: "It will give to the American wool a stable value and a market which can always be depended upon. There are a good many woolen fabrics which can be made wholly out of American wool. The demand for them is not sufficient to exhaust the supply of American wool. There are other fabrics which cannot be made except by an admixture of foreign wools with American wools. These fabrics cannot now be made by the American wool manufacturers at profitable prices. The consequence is that the whole crop of American wools suffers because at times there is not a demand at profitable prices for it by the American wool manufacturer. If wool is made free so that the American manufacturer can buy his wools in all the markets of the world upon equal terms with his foreign competitor, so that he can keep his mills at work in the production of those fabrics which cannot be made out of American wools alone, he will need all the wool that can be raised in America, and more than is now produced. And he can manufacture on equal terms the goods that are now imported, so that the labor that is necessary for the manufacture of those goods, the wool that is used therein, and the profit that is made thereon can be ours, instead of being for the benefit of the foreign manufacturer."

That is an honest view of the question. It comes from a man who is free from indulging in political clap-trap and nonsense. It seems this Republican cry against free wool contains more wind than sound argument.

That Callon Business.

The Lexington Daily Press says Judge Mulligan never did vote for a fraud, and that is why he was not in favor of seating Mr. Callon. And yet the Maysville Democrat would read Judge Mulligan and Hon. J. J. Nesbitt out of the Democratic party for opposing this Greenup fraud in his claims. The Daily Press says:

If the editor of the Democrat and his brethren of the Ninth district are in the habit of preaching and voting as he recommends in his article no wonder his district is represented by a Republican. Not satisfied with his own district being represented by a Republican, he prescribes the same medicine that will make the whole State Republican. Judge Mulligan is blamed for not swallowing the dose that blinds to all right. If the Democratic party of Kentucky expects to live by fraud, the sooner it dies the better. What has given Mulligan such power in the Legislature? Why his fairness and scintillation of schemes. When the Judge makes the race for Congress, if the editor of the Democrat will come out of his Republican neck of the woods, he will see that the Democrats of the Ashland district will not handpick Mulligan for his fairness in voting for Rardin.

We trust the Press will not conclude that the Democrat represents the sentiments of the party on this question. We feel confident that the reverse is true. We regret that our neighbor has assumed such a position. Sailing under a Democrat name and claiming to be a Democrat, his advocacy of such a fraud as Callon will be used against the party in future contests. If the party was called upon to settle this matter it would not be slow to repudiate Callon and all who support him.

A SPECIAL from New York says that Sam Thomas and Calvin S. Brice have in mind a project for changing their entire East Tennessee system of railroads. It comprehends the acquisition of the Kentucky Central, by which they could get into Cincinnati, and so have three lines by which to reach the East instead of one, as at present.

The Covington Commonwealth, a staunch Democratic journal, doesn't entertain the same opinion of Mr. C. H. Callon, of Greenup, that our Court street neighbor does. The Commonwealth says: "The most outrageous thing in which Callon was concerned was the ousting of Rardin. He seems to be making a nuisance of himself."

Denominational Doings.

Right Reverend Bishop Maes, of this diocese, is making arrangements to establish a mission at Pineville, Bell County.

Rev. A. P. Cobb, of Baltimore, is conducting a revival at the Main Street Christian Church at Lexington. Eleven additions at last accounts.

There will be services at the German Lutheran Church on West Second street next Friday morning—Good Friday—at half past 10 o'clock. Services Easter Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at conclusion of morning sermon on Easter Sunday. Sunday school at 9 o'clock. Rev. C. Lieb, pastor.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLICK.

On the night of the 20th, heavy thunder and vivid lightning.

"Tis an offense in this town and a penalty of from $1 to $5 for shooting any firearms, even to protect your life or property. A lame law.

The loafers of this place have struck for higher wages and for more prominent places to recline at during the balmy days that are looked for in the near future.

Duke Scott has been quite sick for some time at his grandmother's, Mrs. Lamira Duke's.

Miss Lucy Myall, one of our society young ladies, left Tuesday morning to visit friends in Maysville. From there she will visit Nepton and Fwing.

March is still marching along.

Last Thursday was the most disagreeable day of the season.

The greens crop is a little late this spring.

We have a string band in this place that grinds day and night.

Mrs. Pat Mangan left last Tuesday morning for Hot Springs, Ark., to be treated for rheumatism.

So far as we have yet been able to learn, everybody took last Sunday for a bad day.

Mrs. John Collins, of Mill Creek, left for Hot Springs last Tuesday. She has rheumatism.

Miss Lucy Clary has been visiting the past week at Mrs. C. T. Kilgore's.

Dr. John W. Williams, who has been ill the past few days, is much worse, and very feeble at best.

RECTORVILLE.

Miss Minnie Pollitt is teaching our spring school.

Mr. Boyd Stubbfield has returned from Brooksville, where he spent several weeks.

Mr. L. G. Auxier and wife are expected home next week.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors

Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 23,150 lbs. Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 1,332 lbs.,

with receipts of 515 lbs. for the same period.

The offerings of earlier tobacco continue remarkably light, and the receipts up to this date as compared with those of the corresponding period last year would indicate that the estimates upon the extent of the crop of 1887, have been rather too large than otherwise. Prices have been shown some improvement during the week the showing the most improvement.

DR. G. M. PHILLIPS has removed to No. 37 Sutton street, east side between Second and Third. 28d12t

JOHN M. HUNT, of the firm of Hunt & Son, has returned from his trip to New York and other points in the East.

It is reported that work will be commenced in a week or so on the railroad to connect Versailles and Georgetown.

We are asked to state that the silk quilt recently raffled by Mrs. Sarah Seithers was won by ticket No. 28, held by Mrs. Lucy Wood.

THE marriage of Miss Mollie Clarke to Mr. Harry L. Gordon, of Wichita, will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the M. E. Church, South.

THE G. A. R. Post at Paintsville, Ky., has eighty-nine members, and there are applications sufficient to increase the number to one hundred and thirty-seven.

THERE were three suits filed in the Circuit Court yesterday and four the day before. The time for entering suits for the approaching term will expire next Saturday.

DR. PHILLIPS is having an addition of two rooms made to his new office on Sutton street. When the work is completed he will have one of the neatest and most conveniently arranged offices in this city.

M. J. LYNCH has accepted a position with McClanahan & Shea and will be pleased to have his friends call, especially when they are looking for anything in the line of stoves, grates, mantels or tinware.

ELVA WARD and Nannie McDaniel celebrated their birthday recently at the home of the latter, on Grant street. Refreshments were served during the evening and the hours were spent very pleasantly with music and games.

JOHN SWARTZ, who had his left thigh broken a few days ago by a horse falling on him at the home of his father, Fred Swartz, on the Orangeburg pike four or five miles from this city, is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. Dr. Phillips, who is attending the case, pronounces the fracture a very bad one.

ANOTHER bridge will very likely be built across the Ohio river from Newport to Cincinnati. The plans of the proposed structure, with a few modifications, have been approved by the Government authorities, and it is reported that work on the structure will soon be commenced. It is expected to be one of the finest bridges in the country.

THE L. Schreiber & Sons Company, manufacturers of architectural iron work, well known in this city, have recently erected an immense building for their works at Cincinnati. The building has a frontage of one hundred and sixty feet on Eggleston avenue and extends back two hundred feet. They employ about one hundred and seventy-five hands, but can work four hundred in case their business should require it.

GEORGE N. HAWES died at Millersburg a few days ago and was buried at Paris Monday. He was a son of Richard Hawes, formerly Judge of the Bourbon County Court. A special says that during the scourge of cholera in 1849 young Hawes had a violent attack of the disease and to all appearances died. He was placed in his coffin, and during the short funeral services he arose and walked. Since that time he has lived a recluse, and never spoke to any one unless spoken to. He remained in an upstairs room for over five years and was never known to speak to any one during that time.

A "DEPRESSED ROAD."

That is the Solution Arrived at for the Bridge Street Problem.

A "depressed road" has been agreed upon as the only solution of the trouble over the railroad crossing at Bridge street.

Mr. H. E. Huntington, representing the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company, was in town yesterday afternoon to confer with the committees appointed by the City Council, and effect some satisfactory settlement of the matter.

The point was visited by the committees and by Mr. Huntington and his attorneys. After a lengthy discussion of the matter, it was decided that the lowering of the street was the best way out of the trouble. The bed of the railroad at the crossing is already fourteen inches higher than the established grade.

The street will be lowered between the piers sufficiently to allow the passage of all vehicles. The sidewalk, however, will not be disturbed.

A Minister of Liberal Views.

Rev. Fred D. Hale, who will commence a meeting at the court house next Monday night, is a minister of liberal views. The Louisville Courier-Journal says: "Unlike many men of his cloth, he does not condemn all sorts of amusements, because, in some hands, they are ill-used or carried to extremes. In regard to the stage, while he does not approve of indiscriminate attendance upon dramatic performances, he asserts that the stage properly belongs to the church and may be made the instrument of much good. But he warns his flock against patronizing theaters improperly conducted. In the course of services he is generally pretty plain spoken. On one occasion he is reported as saying that some people had a horror of anything called a stage; it must be a platform. 'Now,' said he, 'do away with the stage and you put me out in the street. This is my stage where to simply read to you my sermons, you would soon tire of me. You would want me to quit. So I don't do that. I write my sermons and then I memorize them, and when I come on the stage I speak them with all the force of which I am capable. That is dramatic natural fire which is possessed by every man or woman.' These may not be Mr. Hale's exact words, but they convey his idea that the dramatic force with which a sermon is delivered—by some called eloquence—has much to do with the effectiveness of the minister."

Stock and Crops.

Fourteen hundred head of slop-fed cattle were sold at a distillery at Louisville at 5 cents, to be delivered the first of May. All bulls and stags in the lot were to be taken at 4 cents.

It is estimated that the sixty trotters at the "Cedars," Shawhan, Bourbon County, are worth not less than $100,000, the three sons of Hambletonian being placed at $50,000. The brood mares, fillies and young stallions, fifty-seven head, at $50,000.

The corn crop in the South last year was valued at $259,800,000, and that of the cotton crop, $310,000,000. In addition to this the South last year raised $42,000,000 worth of wheat, $31,000,000 worth of oats and $95,000,000 worth of potatoes, barley, tobacco, &c.

Captain R. G. Stoner, of Hambletonian Stock Farm, Bourbon County, has refused an offer of $40,000 for a half interest in the trotters now at his stud. He has sold yearlings from his stud since the first of January, 1888, to the amount of $20,000 at private sale.

Of the prominent two-year-old horses on the turf last season, and which promise to be among the cracks of the present year, the following were sold at auction as yearlings at the prices named: Los Angeles, $3,500; Fordham, $3,400; Blithesome, $1,900; Gallifet, $1,800; Bay Ridge, $1,500; Sir Dixon, $1,125; Ocean, $1,050; Perkins, $500; King Crab, $260; Riceland, $225; Flitter, $130, and Badge, $120.

The sharp decline in the price of tobacco admonishes tobacco growers not to put in as large a crop as they have been contemplating. Those who have been buying at 18 and 20 cents now wish they hadn't. Manufacturers and speculators are over-stocked and are having a time of it in keeping up their margins, hence the decline. If the banks could carry them forever, prices could be sustained. But banks in order to pay expenses and dividends, are obliged to exact interest on the capital allowed to build the market. Out your proposed crop for 1889 in half.—Eminence Constitutionalist.

THE old telephone wires in this city have recently been cut at several places and wound around the posts, leaving no connection with the ground. We are informed this will greatly endanger the lives of passers-by during thunder storms, and the city authorities should investigate the matter.

McINTYRE and Heath say they are "done" with Maysville. They played to a small house last Saturday night, and the crowd on the occasion of their previous visit was not much larger. They have a splendid minstrel troupe, give an enjoyable entertainment, devoid of any vulgarity, and can not afford to visit cities where it is "nip and tuck" for them to come out even.

OWENS & BARKLEY call the attention of the farmers to the fact that they have the agency for the sale of the celebrated Ross cutters, both hand and power, also lever cutters, which will be sold for less money than they can be bought anywhere else. They have a large stock of "O & B." and Haven's roller and lever cutters at very low prices. Full stock of hoes, rakes, forks, shovels, picks, mattocks, &c., &c. They invite all interested in such goods to call and see them and get prices. Having sold about three hundred plows, they have a few left at low prices.

JUDAS THOMAS B. HAMILTON, a prominent citizen of Bath County, took his life last Sunday morning at his home near Owingsville. He blew his brains out with a shot gun. A special says he was sixty-seven years of age, and was regarded as one of the most solid men in the community, having at one time been Judge of Bath County. The cause of his suicide is supposed to have been dependency, superinduced by bad health. For a month past he has imagined himself to be the victim of a conspiracy to rob him of his liberty and property.

THE Baltimore Underwriter says: "The Limestone Insurance Company, projected by parties in Maysville, Ky., has met with adverse fate at the hands of Kentucky legislators. Yet why not Limestone? New Hampshire has a Granite fire insurance company; why should not a Kentucky Legislature recognize the foundations on which the State rests? Is there any significance in the fact that the foundation is honeycombed with caves and is therefore emblematic of hollow-ness? If one State of the Union has a right to a Granite company, why should another State not have a Marble company and another a Flint or a Porphyry or an Adamant? There is a Rock in London, but it is a life company, and though more than eighty years old, it is not very solid."

The Underwriter must be a little mistaken as to the fate of the Limestone. The Legislature has granted its charter and passed a number of amendments thereto, if we have not been misinformed.

How $1 Made John Trimble Tremble.

John Trimble, No. 334 S. Broadway, is the most contented man in Aurora, Ill., for he has in the bank $4,995, the profits of his investment of $1 in the Louisiana State Lottery. He was seen by an express reporter and acknowledged that he had received the above amount and that it was his intention to use the money, he having lately purchased the cut stone business of Isaac Edwards. The ticket which drew the $50,000 prize was number 73,185.—Aurora Express, January 30.

River News.

Still rising at this point. Falling at Pittsburg at last accounts. The Kanawha and Big Sandy were rising. About two hundred rafts of timber are expected of the Little Kanawha soon. Coal shipped from Pittsburg this week: 650,000 bushels. Due up to-night: Telegraph for Pomeroy and Boone for Charleston. Down: Steekdale and Bonanza this evening and Bostona to-night.

THE GERMAN SOCIALISTS

PRETEND TO MOURN THE AGED KAISER'S DEATH,

When in Reality They are Merely Biding Their Time—Knot at Bucharest—Flood News—Advices From Masowah—Boulanger Placed on the Retired List.

LONDON, March 28.—While to outward appearances everything and everybody in Germany assumed an air of sincere mourning after the death of Emperor William, which is still maintained in every part of the empire, there is a large and ever increasing class of people, who, however strictly they may observe the conventional requirements of the occasion, entertain not the slightest feeling of sorrow.

The Socialists—the men, the children of the men, and the converts of the men whose necks were trodden upon in 1848 by the prince, who, as the ruler of the later constructed German empire, has just died full of years, victories and honors—are they mourning the death of the Kaiser? Assuredly not; but they are nevertheless pretending to do so, while still biding the time when the inevitable changes in the tide of public opinion shall bring about the social upheaval which will be their opportunity to reassert their claims to the privileges they have ever deemed themselves deprived of.

When in 1861, King William I, of Prussia, placed the crown upon his head with the declaration that he was called to the throne by divine summons; that the people had nothing to do whatever but to obey and the responsibility of the crown was to God alone, the hopes of the revolutionists of thirteen years ago that they might receive some recognition at the hands of the new king were crushed, but not killed.

The accession of the present king and emperor to the throne of his father has brought them no encouragement, notwithstanding his much heralded desire to secure the rights and privileges of all classes, and their sympathy with him in his illness is no greater than their sorrow over his father's death.

From the Crown Prince William, when he shall in his turn ascend the throne, the Socialists have still less to expect beyond the hope that his self-conceit and pig-headed obstinacy may lead him to involve Germany in a war, out of which may spring a successful Socialist revolution. It was expected that the death of Emperor William would awaken the Socialists to renewed activity, but no movement among them is observable. Of course there are the usual mutterings and execrations of the existing institutions, and these are somewhat augmented by the publication of the emperor's will, showing him to have been possessed of an enormous fortune accumulated by the sweat of other people's brows while he ruled by "divine right," but there is an absence of demonstration of the character that would naturally be expected from persons so steadfast in their peculiar views, which seems almost ominous.

The act of the emperor in affixing his signature to the bill prolonging the anti-Socialist law may possibly stir up a Socialist row in some part of the country, but it is generally believed that the policy of the leaders is a waiting one.

Excitement at Bucharest.

BUCHAREST, March 28.—A large meeting of opponents to the government was held here Monday. After the meeting several conflicts occurred between the people and the extra force of gendarmes, which had been placed around the palace and the public offices as a precaution against a revolutionary movement. Many persons were wounded by batons and bayonets. A number of arrests were made. Great excitement prevails throughout the city.

The cause of discontent is referable to the tariff laws between Hungary and Roumania, by which the former has struck out Roumanian cattle and the latter Austro-Hungarian manufactures.

Losses by Floods Increase.

BERLIN, March 28.—Further particulars have been received of damage done by floods in the Vistula river and its branches. The dike on the Nogat has burst, the adjoining country has overflowed, and the inhabitants of the place have fled to Elbing. The suburbs of the latter place, which is on the river Elbing, are flooded. The population of Marienburg, on the Nogat, escaped the town with difficulty. The prisoners in the jail were rescued by the fire brigade. The town is inundated. Eight villages at the mouth of the mouth of the Vistula are submerged. Houses are falling, and cattle are being drowned.

King John Orders an Attack.

ROME, March 28.—A despatch from Masowah says it has been learned there that King John has ordered three columns of Abyssinian troops to attack the Italian forces.

Gen. San Marzano telegraphs that large numbers of Abyssinians have arrived within four miles of Saati, and that an attack is expected soon.

From this it would appear that the Italians have retired from their advanced station at Ghinda, and are concentrated at Saati, a few miles to the eastward.

Boulanger on the Retired List.

PARIS, March 28.—President Carnot has signed a decree placing Gen. Boulanger on the retired list of the French army.

Anti-Socialist Laws.

BERLIN, March 28.—Emperor Frederick has affixed his signature to the bill prolonging the existing anti-Socialist laws.

Starving and Drowning.

LONDON, March 28.—Thousands of persons are dying of starvation in the inundated districts of Hungary.

Foreign Notes.

The sultan of Zanzibar is dead. The French government has declined to accept Italy's proposals for a commercial treaty.

Lord Stanley, of Preston, the new governor general of Canada, will start for his post about the beginning of June.

The French chamber of deputies by a vote of 200 to 170, decided to consider the proposal to authorize the Panama company to issue a loan.

Count Von Alten has presented to President Carnot an autograph letter from Emperor Frederick, announcing accession to the German throne, and expressing thanks for the French delegation sent to the funeral of Emperor William.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

W. N. Wilkin, a Tiffin traveling salesman, inaugurated a new departure in mysterious disappearances by squaring accounts with his employer and vanishing afterward. This reversal of the usual order leads to suspicion of insanity or foul play.

Judson Chaffin, of Findlay, O., the bigamist, begs piteously to be put into the pen, as three of his wives have already arrived, and every train brings a fresh installment. He says he can't face the music when that female band begins to play.

Penitentiary board of Arkansas has investigated the charges of horrible cruelty in the treatment of state convicts by lessors and wardens, and find that the accusations are true. The board has withdrawn the convicts from lessee's mines and discharged the chief warden of the penitentiary.

Mrs. John Zamistowski, of Chicago, recently recovered insurance judgments for $3,000 and $1,000 from the Knights of Pythias and Knights and Ladies of Honor, on her husband's death. Now Zamistowski turns up as a convict in Minnesota. He pretended to suicide because he wanted to get his insurance before he died.

Mr. Bartle, retired pork packer of St. Louis, who told the senate committee that lard is manufactured from diseased hogs, entrails, hoofs and hair, has caused a terrible storm of indignation among the packers of the west. It will not be safe for Bartle to venture near the St. Louis pork kettles for several months to come—lest perchance.

Vessels Quarantined.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Secretary of State Bayard has received a despatch from the United States minister at Honolulu, saying that all vessels arriving at Hawaiian ports from San Francisco are to be placed under quarantine regulations owing to the spread of smallpox in that city. The regulations of the board of health, dated Honolulu, January 23, 1888, prescribe a quarantine of eighteen days and say that no passengers for ports other than Honolulu shall be allowed to land. The vessel may, however, upon the written consent of the port physician be allowed to come to an enclosed wharf for the discharge of cargo, but no person shall be admitted to the wharf except upon the written permit of the board of health.
